

Kyrgyzstan is a mountainous land. Seventy percent of its territory lies over 3000 m above sea level. You can see abundant valleys and mountain semi-deserts, snowy summits and glaciers, rapid rivers, blue lakes, and fir-woods in this land. However, as the saying goes, "Better one time to see then a hundred times to hear". If you decide to follow this proverb, then

WELCOME TO KYRGYZSTAN!

"Tien-Shan Travel" has this conviction: the best mountains in Asia are the Tien-Shan! Only the Himalayas have more and higher summits than the "Sky Mountains", but we have the advantage of accessibility. You can reach the Enylchek glacier at the foot of peaks Khan-Tengry and Pobeda within two days from any European country.

"Tien-Shan Travel" will help you to climb to the summits and have a fascinating mountain trip in the center of Asia.

